10/06/2019			DOCKET TEXT ORDER (no separate order issued:) The principal issues arising from the recommendations of the Fee Examiner seem to be travel time, redaction, timing and frequency of hearings and appropriate charges, if any, for making required disclosures. Counsel should address these issues and the following tentative rulings during the limited time available for oral argument on October 7 at 10 AM. Tentative rulings: There is no reason to depart from the posted and long-standing two hour allowance for travel; redactions are not appropriate, as time entries that are consistent with Guideline 13 and not vague should not reveal privileged or confidential matters; omnibus hearings for ALL Professionals on four month intervals are efficient, and counsel missing a deadline can wait four months, particularly since they are being paid 80% each month; retention applications are not the same as fee applications and must include required disclosures per FRBP 2014(a), and see J. Montali Practices and Procedures at Para. III, M. (RE: related document(s) 3950 Motion to Approve Document filed by Examiner Bruce A Markell). (Montali, Dennis) (Entered: 10/06/2019)

The telephone conference tentatively set for tomorrow at 10:00 AM is CANCELLED. After Mr. Zinman has been examined, counsel should meet and confer about whether the deposition of Mr. Wells is necessary. At the hearing on November 13, 2019, the court will consider whether to extend further the deadline for objections beyond that date to permit any further discovery, whether the commitment counter-parties have agreed to a further continuance of the hearing beyond November 19, 2019, due to pending mediation efforts, or whether the court should continue that hearing even absent such agreement. 11/10/2019			DOCKET TEXT ORDER (no separate order issued:) TENTATIVE RULING ON TIGER MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM STAY (Dkt. No. 4322): CONTINUE until the late February, 2020. Debtors and their litigation counsel have very full plates in the coming weeks dealing with claims filed up to the to-be-extended deadline, the Tubbs trial and the USDC Estimation proceedings. And counsel for Tiger told the USDC in No. 4:16-0671 last August that they would report on the status of the Ch 11 on February 20, 2020. While Tiger no doubt wants to press for trial, the overall interests of a successful reorganization are more compelling. If Tiger accepts this tentative, its counsel should notify counsel for Debtors and the courtroom deputy no later than noon on November 12, 2019, in which case the matter will be dropped from the November 13 calendar, to be reset by the court in the coming days when the All-Purpose PG&E dates for 2020 are scheduled. 11/14/2019			DOCKET TEXT ORDER (no separate order issued:) Denied TENTATIVE RULING ON CLASS REPRESENTATIVE MOTION TO EXTEND FRCP 23 (Dkt. No 4371): DENY. The persuasive arguments of debtors re robust noticing, absence of pre-petition class certification and lateness in motion well-after the bar date notice alone justify denial. Moreover, the court doubts that a post-petition claimant could ever represent a pre-petition class even if the estates are solvent. Further, on this record, the traditional procedures for claim filing and objections are adequate to deal with the alleged wrongdoings by debtors if proven. Co., 311 U.S. 223 (1940), cited several times by the TCC but not at all by any of them, is not dispositive as to how this court MUST rule on the present question presented. Further, they need to identify just what specific markers or indicators (not simply arguments in these and other similar briefs filed in other proceedings) this court should look to in order to predict that the California Supreme Court would reverse the current case law applying inverse condemnation law to IOUs such as Debtors (Dkt. No 4485, at 3:13–14). (Montali, Dennis) (Entered: 11/17/2019)

02/17/2020			DOCKET TEXT ORDER (no separate order issued:) The court will hold hearing on Thursday, February 20, 2020, at 1:30 PM re the application of FRBP 7023 vs extension of a claims bar date. See Dkt. Nos. 5604, 5786 & 5787. Counsel are welcome to appear by phone through CourtCall. Nothing more needs to be filed. Counsel for Debtors should be prepared to explain (1) why the most preferable outcome would not be for the claims, whether based on equity or debt, to pass through unimpaired, subject to all defenses, and dealt with after confirmation; (2) how Debtors will provide adequate disclosure to impaired claims filed by any extended deadline, if the deadline is after approval of a disclosure statement; (3) whether Debtors contemplate estimating the claims of such parties under Section 502(c) and of so, when; (4) how to avoid confusion by claimants between assertion of claims directly AGAINST debtors (to be included) and claims asserted DERIVATIVELY against third parties (to be excluded)? Lead Plaintiffs should be prepared to comment on the Debtors suggested timetable and the proposed Notice and proposed Securities Proof of Claim (Dkt. No. 5787–1), remembering that what is required of a class action settlement notice is different from a bankruptcy proof of claim.
